

BENUE STATE UNIVERSITY, MAKURDI

PROFILE

Benue State University, Makurdi was established by the Benue State Government with the enactment of the Benue State University Edict No. 1 of 1991.

The University took off in the 1992/93 academic year with four Faculties, namely: Arts, Education, Science and Social Sciences. Two Faculties, Law and Management Sciences came on stream in the 1993/94 academic session and Faculty of Environmental Sciences in the 2014/2015 session.

Vision

To be the University of First Choice in Nigeria and Africa and among the top 200 in the world.

Mission

To be a Centre of Excellence in creating knowledge and developing a complete person who is capable of not only responding to the cultural, social, political and economic needs of the environment but also setting the agenda for change.

Core Values

The following three core values constitute the University's philosophy and therefore, shape its policy and strategy:

- ✓ Excellence in research,
- ✓ Placing the` latest knowledge at the disposal of students via teaching and skills development, and
- ✓ Effective engagement with all relevant communities.

To use education as a tool for people's liberation, the University strives to hold itself up as the lamp of the world by upholding moral rectitude, integrity and accountability in all its transactions with its stakeholders.

Mandate

The University has been brought into being to deliver on the following objectives which indeed constitute its mandate:

1. To provide the highest standard of learning and equal opportunity to all within the constraints of available resources. In fulfilment of this objective, the University operates the following guidelines and criteria in its admission policy:

(i)	National Merit (NM)	-	5%
(ii)	State Merit (SM)	-	35%
(iii)	Equality of Local Government (ELG)	-	50%
(iv)	Locality	-	10%
(v)	Ratio of UME/Direct Entry:	-	80/20
(vi)	Science/Arts Ratio:	-	60/40

2. To place before the people of the State and the entire nation knowledge and skills developed via learning and research. Specifically, academic staff of the University are from time to time invited to offer their professional skills and expertise to all the tiers of Government, players in the private sector, international agencies as well as non-governmental outfits. Such services are offered via feasibility studies, technical advice, seminars, conferences and workshops. In engaging the community with these services, especially by way of extension and consultancy services, the University in turn boosts its internally generated revenue for deployment in managing the affairs of the University.

3. To develop requisite manpower for the State and the nation. Within the limits permitted by available facilities and resources, the University tries to place at the disposal of qualified candidates access to higher education. However, the University does not compromise the desired high standards of academic excellence needed to prepare graduates for the challenges of the world of work. In addition, entrepreneurial skills necessary for self-reliance are also imparted as a matter of priority.

4. To promote, preserve and propagate the social and cultural heritage of the diverse people of the State and the country. The highly enriched curricula in B.A. English, B.A. History, B.A. Theatre Arts, B.A. Religion and B.A. Philosophy degree programmes are designed to provide the fertile ground for the achievement of this noble objective. This menu will further inculcate in our youths the rich cultural heritage of our forefathers for posterity and for the enhancement of our tourism potentials in the State and beyond.

5. To engage in any other activities capable of promoting the standard of living of man within the constraints of available resources.

The Post Graduate School took off in the 1998/1999 academic session while the College of Health Sciences was established in the 2003/2004 academic year. The College has graduated nine sets of Medical Doctors since 2015 and more will be graduate in subsequent years as the University Management and State Government are committed in ensuring that Medical Students graduate within record time.

GROWTH, EXPANSION AND ACHIVEMENTS

From a modest beginning with four Faculties, the University currently has thirteen (13) Faculties, namely; Arts, Education, Environmental Sciences, Law, Mass Communication and Media Studies, Management Sciences, Pharmacy, Science, Social Sciences and Technology and Industrial Studies Education. The others are: Basic Medical Sciences, Basic Clinical and Clinical Sciences at College of Health Sciences.

Since inception, thirty years ago, the University has established itself in Nigeria's educational history as a highly respected Centre of academic excellence, having won major academic laurels in different fields over the years including a World Bank Africa Centre of Excellence which was won through competitive bidding of research proposals submitted by fifty Universities.

The University was adjudged the best State-owned University in 2003/2004 academic year by the National Universities Commission (NUC).

A 2007 graduate of Law of the University who passed out with a First-Class degree also graduated with First Class in the Bar Examinations of the Nigerian Law School, being among the only two who performed the academic feat that year in the entire Country. In 2020, the University produced the first Senior Advocate of Nigeria (SAN).

A Ph.D thesis in History by Patrick Ukase was adjudged the best in the Faculties of Arts of all Nigerian Universities by NUC in 2009.

Dr. Daniel Momngu Tiough, Lecturer, Department of Vocational and Technical Education, won the Professor Fafunwa outstanding Ph.D Thesis Award in Nigeria 2015.

In August 2010, a 200 level Law undergraduate of the University Mr. Victor Ochogwu, participated in a World Annual Youth International Human Rights Summit Debate in Geneva, Switzerland organised by the United Nations and was adjudged the United Nations' best spokesman.

In July 2011, selected students of the University came first in the Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE) Competition and were selected to represent Nigeria in Malaysia in October of the same year.

Mrs. Caroline Ekpendu, Lecturer with Faculty of Law won an Appeal Court Judgment in favour of Hon. Avine Agbum of the Makurdi North Benue State House of Assembly seat in 2015.

The University was one of the first that got operational license from the Nigerian Broadcasting Commission for the operation of campus Radio. The Campus 89.9 FM Radio was commissioned on 22nd October, 2015.

In November 2017, a 400-Level Business Management undergraduate, Mr. Agber Aondofa Isaac, participated and emerged 3rd position in Nigeria for the 2017 Edition of Best Marketing Student of the Year Award Examination. This result shows that Benue State University came first among all public Universities in Nigeria.

Dr. Iorliam Aamo, Lecturer, Department of Mathematics and Computer Science won the StartUp Nigeria North-Central, 2018 Competition which was organized by the Vice-President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, Professor Yemi Osibanjo, with eight thousand (8000) applicants. Dr. Aamo had developed a forensic software that can remotely capture what happens on an attacker's digital device (phone or computer). He won this competition and got an award of ₦2,500,000.

In April 2021, the University received appreciation Award from the Executive Secretary, Association of Vice-Chancellors of Nigerian Universities in leading five other Universities to develop Eagle Scan Anti Plagiarism software for Nigerian Universities which was launched in Abuja.

Again, Benue State University, Makurdi, emerged as the Amnesty International's 2023 Intervarsity Debate Champions, Sandra Idoko, a 500 Level Student of Law and representative of the University, defeated representatives of University of Benin and University of Ibadan to clinch the first position. The debate was held at the University of Lagos, 19th May, 2023

The University has also put in place the following facilities to improve learning and research:

(a) Media Centre: Fully furnished Media Centre and Department of Mass Communication with state-of-the-art Radio, TV, Photographic, PR/Advert studio equipment have been put in place.

(b) ICT/Library Facilities: The University has expanded its IT facilities and library requirements, built many office blocks, lecture rooms which helped in securing National Universities Commission full accreditation of programmes.

(c) ICT Directorate: The University has put in place a directorate of Information and Communication Technology to improve internet accessibility by members of the university community. It has put in place a fully functional wireless internet network with a basic station at the Directorate and four Cyber Cafes located in the Department of Maths/Computer Science, College of Health Science, Postgraduate School and the Eastern Campus.

(d) Internet Library Project: The University has installed digital access and infrastructure with a network of computers, a server, VSAT equipment and high-speed internet connectivity, which enhances easy access/subscription to electronic resources, e-journals and e-books. The facility is located in the Postgraduate School, obtained in partnership with Open Society Initiative for West Africa (OSIWA) who trained BSU Library staff on networking. There is a new VSAT also in the library.

Visitors to the University

The University took off thirty years ago during the tenure of the late Rev. Fr. Moses Orshio Adasu as Executive Governor of Benue State.
